FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

RitzHolman CPAs Partner Receives 2011 WICPA President's Award

Milwaukee, Wisconsin (July 25, 2011). RitzHolman CPAs, a Milwaukee-based accounting firm, is pleased to announce that Tricia Knight, CPA, partner and member of the firm's tax team, has been awarded with the 2011 WICPA Award Award, which recognizes individuals for their contributions to the accounting profession and the organization.

The WICPA is the premier professional organization for Wisconsin CPAs, with more than 8,000 members working in public accounting, industry, government and education. The annual WICPA President's awards program is designed to recognize outstanding CPAs on the state level.

Tricia Knight, CPA

Knight is a partner and member of the firm's tax team. Since joining the firm in 1978 and becoming partner in 1985, Knight has focused on personal and business tax as well as financial and estate planning. She also provides litigation support and a full range of accounting services to closely-held businesses.

As an advocate for the accounting profession and the community, Knight serves on the board of directors for several organizations, including the Charles Allis/Villa Terrace Art Museum, Wild Space Dance Company and the Wisconsin Trust Account Foundation. She volunteers on local and statewide committees such as the Practitioner Liaison Committee for the IRS and the Wisconsin Department of Revenue, the Three Holy Women Catholic Parish Finance Committee and the WICPA Executive Finance and Federal Tax Committees.
